

Giulia FilippiniVice President of Sales at Anaergia Srl

Giulia Filippini holds an M.Sc. in Environmental Engineering and has over 7 years of experience in the renewable energy sector.

As a Business Analyst for the EMEA region, she leverages her quantitative analysis skills to provide valuable market insights and forecasts, focusing on biomethane.

In her previous role as an Application & Process Engineer, she developed strong technical foundations in analyzing project requirements and conducting comprehensive feasibility studies.

Throughout her career, she has acquired knowledge and experience in environmental and sustainability issues, as well as staying abreast of relevant market trends.